

BRITISH COLUMBIA TRUCKING ASSOCIATION

2024 SERVICE TO THE INDUSTRY AWARD

Service to the Industry Award:

Since 1961, BCTA has presented an annual Service to the Industry Award to a person who, in the determination of the Selection Committee, has made an exceptional contribution to the association and motor transport industry in BC. The Selection Committee consists of the three most recent recipients of the award who are available.

This is a prestigious award to honour individuals who have provided long-term leadership and passionate support for the achievement of association goals and improvement of the motor transport industry. The award is presented at the BCTA Management Conference, being held this year at the Fairmont Chateau Whistler Resort in Whistler, BC, May 31 and June 1, 2024.

Selection Criteria:

We welcome nominations for individuals who have provided exceptional leadership and support for the achievement of BCTA goals and betterment of the motor transport industry. Nominees will have made significant contributions to the development and fulfilment of BCTA's goals and policies, including in the areas of safety, the environment, education, regulations, government relations and public relations.

Nominations:

Nominations may be submitted by any BCTA member. To nominate a fellow member, please complete the following form and forward to BCTA, attention Michele Nicol at michelen@bctrucking.com, marked "Confidential." Please provide as much information as possible to assist in the selection process.

Award Support:

The award is supported by the Flemming Sondergaard Legacy Fund. Flemming Sondergaard owned and operated Collins Manufacturing Company Ltd. Active in BCTA for over 40 years, Flemming served on the BCTA Board, Executive and numerous committees. Committed to the education and training of industry employees, he also served as Chairman of the British Columbia Institute of Technology from 1987 to 1989.

Nominations must be received no later than April 23, 2024.
