HARMONIZED SALES TAX PREPARATION WORKSHOP

Wednesday, February 24, 2010

South Pender Island Ballroom
Hotel Grand Pacific
463 Belleville Street, VICTORIA, BC

1:00 – 3:00 pm

Members: $25.00 per person (plus GST)

Non-Members: $50.00 per person (plus GST)

The Harmonized Sales Tax (HST) is coming to BC on July 1, 2010.
What do you need to do to get ready?

BCTA is hosting a workshop covering the technical and administrative aspects of the transition to the harmonized sales tax (HST). The workshop will be of interest to bookkeepers, accounting staff, and/or IT personnel who need to plan for HST implementation prior to July 1, 2010, when the new tax becomes effective. Darren Taylor, Senior Manager of Grant Thornton, will be on hand to discuss issues such as the HST transitional rules, place of supply rules, and the effect of the HST on the multi-jurisdictional vehicle tax.

Please submit your questions with your completed registration form (see overleaf) as some answers may require research.

Darren Taylor, Grant Thornton

Darren Taylor is Senior Manager, Sales Tax and Transfer Pricing, with Grant Thornton, a prominent Canadian accounting and business advisory firm. At Grant Thornton, Mr. Taylor leads the Manufacturing and Distribution Group and is a member of the Transportation Sector Group. He works with clients to develop practical strategies to manage their sales and fuel taxes and provides advice on how the HST will impact their businesses.
